

Georgia's Amazing Journey

Itinerary

Day 1: Tbilisi welcomes you!

- After you arrive at Tbilisi International Airport, enjoy a smooth journey to your hotel in the heart of Tbilisi, just a 30-minute drive away.
- Complete check-in and settle into your room for a comfortable overnight stay.

Day 2: Kakheti, the essence of Georgia

- Start your day with an energetic breakfast at the hotel before heading to Telavi, the largest town in Kakheti, in the Alazani Valley.
- The Gombori Mountains and the Caucasus well surround it. As an explorer, feel lucky to be here as there are unlimited opportunities.
- The historic Alaverdi Monastery, a UNESCO World Heritage tentative site dating back to the 11th century, is the next destination. It has been destroyed many times but is still a hotspot for travelers.
- The next step should be towards Tsinandali, the 19th-century residence of Prince Alexandre Chavchavadze, a poet and public figure.
- See Georgia's oldest and largest winery, with a charming garden and an impressive wine cellar housing a collection of 20,000 bottles.
- Engage in culinary activities, learning the art of baking Georgian bread and crafting traditional "churchkhela."
- End it with a visit to Lopota Lake Resort, where you'll rest with the day's memories.
- Have a peaceful overnight stay so that you can get ready for further adventures.

Day 3: A peaceful leisure day

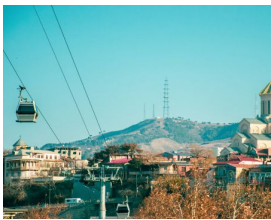

- Have a leisurely start with breakfast at the hotel.
- Have much free time at the resort, allowing you to relax. Whether sitting by the lake or exploring the surroundings, do what you want.

- Enjoy a cosy sleep to get ready for the next day.

Day 4: Old Tbilisi on your way

- Start with a satisfying breakfast at the resort before you leave for Tbilisi.
- After arrival, complete the check-in at the hotel.
- Start your journey in Old Tbilisi, which lasts 2-3 hours, mainly on foot. See historic landmarks, starting with the iconic Metekhi Church, on a cliff overlooking the Mtkvari River. Take a cable car to the ancient Narikala Fortress for city views.
- Don't forget to visit Chardin Street, a hub with cafes, clubs, art salons, and galleries. Look at the 17th-century Sulfur Old Baths, characterized by unique red brick domes giving up steam.
- Start your walk on the striking Bridge of Peace, a bow-shaped pedestrian bridge adorned with LEDs over the Kura River.
- Enjoy a complimentary boat trip on the Mtkvari River with Georgian music and opt for a boat lunch that will cost extra.
- Conclude the day with a romantic candlelit dinner at the restaurant (extra cost) before returning to the hotel in Tbilisi for a restful overnight stay.

Day 5: Kazbegi Adventure

- Start your day with a tasty breakfast at the hotel, followed by a 3-hour drive to Kazbegi. Go through the medieval Ananuri Fortress above the Zhinvali infinity water reservoir, which showcases centuries of history.
- Stop at the Gudauri friendship monument, a symbol of cross-border friendship. Continue the journey to Kazbegi, reaching by early afternoon.
- Start your 4x4 jeep tour to reach the iconic Gergeti Trinity Church on a hill.
- Return to Tbilisi, where you'll have a comfortable overnight.

Day 6: Goodbye Georgia

Have your final breakfast at the hotel before checking out. Say Goodbye to the surroundings as you smoothly depart for Tbilisi Airport. Go through the memories of your Georgian adventure as your journey ends here.
